

RICHMOND CIVIC & COMMERCE
FEBRUARY 9, 2010
RICHMOND LANES

The monthly meeting of the Richmond Civic & Commerce was called to order by President Randy Rothstein at 12:13 p.m.

The following members and guests were present: Nadine Schnettler, Pat Johnson, Janet Keller, Patti Plantenberg, Dan Coughlin, Anita Reichert, Charlie Reichert, Lynn Reichert, Scott Staska, Marilyn Zenner, Jessica Hennen, Jennifer Shinn, Melanie Walz, Trish Nilson, Jim Hemmesch and Randy Rothstein.

A motion was made by Patti Plantenberg, seconded by Janet Keller, to approve the minutes of the January 12, 2010 meeting. Motion carried.

The monthly financial report was read by Jessica Hennen. A motion was made by Anita Reichert, seconded by Charlie Reichert, to approve the financial report. Motion carried.

Randy Rothstein gave a marketing committee update. The plans for the value-added promotion books are going well. Richmond Civic and Commerce members will be contacted during February to ensure all members are given the opportunity to participate. The goal is have the booklets available to the public in spring 2010.

An overview of the Richmond Civic and Commerce Holiday Party that was held on January 30, 2010 was given. Total attendance was 90 members, current and retired. A big thank you was given to Patti Plantenberg and Jim Hemmesch for coordinating the event. The cost was significantly more this year to host the party, but it was noted that the cost per person was the same as in prior years and the increase of approximately 50-60 more people accounted for the increase.

2010 Membership fees are continuing to come in; a reminder notice will be sent out to unpaid members at the end of February.

Dan Coughlin gave an update on the Glacial Lakes Trail Pavilion. A couple grant applications have been completed and submitted for donations to the Pavilion, as of today, no reply has been received. Paver stones are currently being sold as a fundraiser to help pay for the construction of the building. Candy Bar sales have been a big hit and are almost sold out. A decision was made to submit another order of boxes. A motion was made by Anita Reichert, seconded by Pat Johnson. Motion carried.

Randy Rothstein gave an update on the ordering and purchase of new holiday street banners and decorations. Booklets and catalogs have been received and are currently being reviewed.

Patti Plantenberg gave an update on the 2010 High School Scholarships. She stated that the letters and applications will be given to the schools by the end of the month.

Jim Hemmesch informed those in attendance about an annual event that the Richmond Lanes hosts each year, the "No-Tap Bowling Tournament". He displayed the tournament poster of which showcased that the tournament is sponsored by the Richmond Civic & Commerce. He mentioned that in prior years, the Richmond Civic & Commerce has donated Richmond Bucks to go towards the grand prizes. A motion was made by Jennifer Shinn, seconded by Patti Plantenberg to donate $200 worth of Richmond Bucks to the tournament. Motion carried.

Janet Keller gave an update on Nick Keller, and his achievement of breaking the world's snowmobiling record.

The attendance prize winner was Duane Kuss, who was not in attendance at the meeting.

A motion was made by Patti Plantenberg, seconded Pat Johnson, to adjourn the meeting. The meeting was adjourned at 12:38 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Jessica Hennen
Secretary/Treasurer
